The Best In Single Records and Albums

• BEST SINGLES

Mark Lindsay: "PHOTOGRAPH." Yes, Mark (the same from Paul Revere and the Raiders) is back with a new single you're bound to fall in love with immediately! Mark's soft and gentle voice is enough to keep you listening to this record over and over again!

Denis Bryant: "SOUL MAN." This is a remake of Issac Hayes' hit a few years back and it's a good one! Denis is new to a single record, and we think you'll not only like his style and voice, but the soft and sort of easy feeling the production gives the record. Watch for Denis to go straight to the top! He's a real winner! (WARNER BROTHERS)

• BEST ALBUMS

Blue Swede: "OUT OF THE BLUE." Blue Swede fans will love the newest LP by the group! It has their latest single, "Hush, I'm Alive," on it as well as some fun tunes like "Dr. Rock and Roll," and "Half-Breed." The ten cuts on the album are all easy going for a pleasant listening time! (CAPITOL)

David Essex: "STARDUST." Actually, this LP is the soundtrack from the movie "Stardust" and even if you didn't see the movie, you'll love hearing all the oldies on the LP! Songs like "Happy Birthday Sweet 16" by Neil Sedaka, "I Get Around" by the Beach Boys, and "It Might As Well Rain Until September" by Carole King, help make it great listening. Other songs are original hits by the Mamas and the Papas, Little Eva and Cat Stevens, and David Essex sings four original tunes penned for him for the movie! (ARISTA RECORDS)

Original Cast: "TOMMY." Again, we've got another great movie soundtrack LP. "Tommy" by the group The Who, stars Ann-Margret, and Roger Daltrey, and features guest performances by Elton John, Eric Clapton, and Jack Nicholson, among others. (See our Movie preview on page 54.) (POLYDOR)

Barbra Streisand: "FUNNY LADY." This is the soundtrack LP from the movie of the same name, and besides Barbra it features James Caan and Omar Sharif. If you loved the movie you can recapture every second of it by playing the soundtrack. Our favorites are "I Found a Million Dollar Baby," and "More Than You Know." A must! (ARISTA RECORDS)

LaBelle: "NIGHTBIRDS." A must for everyone who loves the single "Lady Marmalade" (you know that swinging French song?). LaBelle is three girls, Patti LaBelle, Sarah Dash and Nona Hendryx. Our favorite cuts on the LP besides "Lady Marmalade" are "Nightbird" and "All Girl Band." (EPIC) •
