BEST SINGLES

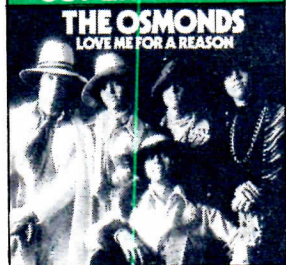

Johnny Bristol: "YOU AND I." If you loved Johnny's hit "Hang On In There Baby," you'll love his newest! It's got an up-tempo beat and a great arrangement! It's from Johnny's fist album, "Hang On In There Baby," which is terrific! Johnny sings "I Got Your Number" and "Love Me For a Reason" which are among our favorites!

Hollies: "DON'T LET ME DOWN." Another sure hit for the "Air That I Breathe" gang! The Hollies new one is a little faster tempo than their other hit, and is taken from their album, "Hollies." Looks like another hit for the group, who've really made a big comeback!

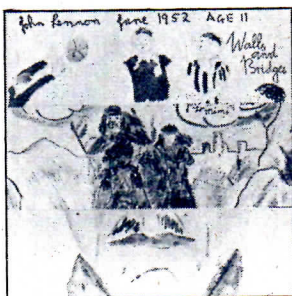

Sparky: "I'LL NEVER SAY NEVER AGAIN." Sparky is a brand new group with a brand new single that is a warm, friendly song with a snappy beat and some cute lyrics! The group is composed of 4 young gentlemen ages 12 to 14! This could be a hit for the group! Read more about them in editor Sharon's column, Meow!

Eric Clapton: "WILLIE AND THE HAND JIVE." Oldies are still going strong, and Eric's newest single is more proof of how good the good old days were! "The Hand Jive" is a fun, crazy sort of song you can sing along with, or really move too! If you enjoyed Clapton's "I Shot the Sheriff," then add his next one to your collection!

SUPER ALBUMS

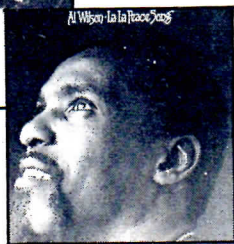

The Osmonds: "LOVE ME FOR A REASON." Just like their hit single of the same name, the album is wonderful, too! We especially like "I Can See Love in You and Me," and "Peace," but it's hard to pick just two! The album was produced by the Osmonds and has a new sound. It's the same Osmonds, they're just growing musically and getting better—if that's possible! You'll love the cover photo! (Kolob/MGM)

John Lennon: "WALLS AND BRIDGES." John's new LP is terrific! Among our favorite cuts are "Whatever Gets You Through the Night," and "Nobody Loves You) When You're Down and Out"). John always has very distinctive album covers and this one is fun. It's got a removable flap over the center of it—what's beneath it? You'll have to find out for yourself! (Apple)

Al Wilson: "LA LA PEACE SONG." That "Show and Tell" man has a good new album out that contains super sounds like "I Won't Last a Day Without You," and "You're a Weak Man." The album was produced by Johnny Bristol, who also penned the title song! Al Wilson has a wonderful sound, and his voice is mellow and soulful! (Bell)

Sylvers: "THE SYLVERS III." The Sylvers keep on putting out great albums and this one is no exception! All but one of the songs were written by the Sylvers' themselves! You can sing along with this album right away because the lyrics are all printed for you on the back jacket! Our favorite cuts are "I Aim to Please," and "Am I Truly Yours?" (MGM) ●
