

The Best In Single Records and Albums

Swinging SOUNDS

• BEST SINGLES

ANDY GIBB: "I Just Wanna Be Your Everything."

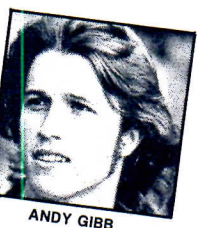

If the sound of this tune sounds familiar to you, it's probably because the artist just happens to be the youngest brother of the popular Gibb brothers who make up the group "The Bee Gees"! Andy's song is a big smash hit in America, having already climbed every chart in Europe! He's definitely a name to watch... our pick to click! (RSO Records)

DAVID SOUL: "This Time I'm Going In With My Eyes Open."

Ahhhhhh, can you believe it? Gorgeous David Soul came up with a follow up to "Don't Give Up On Us" that's so lovely and romantic, you're guaranteed to sigh every time you hear it! It's much in the same style as his first single, and every Soul fan is sure to love it! (Private Stock)

DAVID SOUL

ANDY GIBB

• BEST ALBUMS

FLEETWOOD MAC: "Rumours."

Including their hit single, "You Can Go Your Own Way," this is probably Fleetwood Mac's greatest group effort ever! It's jam-packed with great song, after great song, and if you're a Fleetwood Mac fan, or even if you aren't, this one's guaranteed to appeal to everyone! (Warner Brothers)

ROCKY: "Original Motion Picture Score."

If you loved the movie, you must get this album! The title song, "Gonna Fly Now" is triumphantly beautiful, and we bet you won't be able to sit still during the whole thing! Other pretty songs include "Reflections" and "Philadelphia Morning." "Take It Back" is a finger snappin' street corner song that you'll start singing in the shower every morning—watch! (United Artists)

BEATLES: "Beatles At The Hollywood Bowl."

What reviewer could possibly give the Beatles a bad review? They'll go down in history as four of the most brilliantly talented musicians in musical history! This particular set of songs was taken live at their performance at the Hollywood Bowl several years back! It's pure Beatle Gold, so grab it, before it's too late! (Capitol) •

MORE NEWS ON PAGE 30