• BEST ALBUMS

Bo Donaldson and the Heywoods: "FARTHER ON," is really a terrific album! Their single release, "Oh, Boy," is included as well as a snappy version of the Sweet's "Teenage Rampage," and our favorites, "Shine It On" and "Bit Off." Bo also sings a cute number called "You Never Can Tell." Produced by Mike Chapman, the first Capitol release for the boys will go straight to the top!

Frankie Avalon: "VENUS" if you will, is not only the title of Frankie's single remake of his hit from the 1950's, but the title of his new LP as well. Frankie's new discosound is very 1976 and his album is easy to listen to and fun to sing along with! (Pip)

Melissa Manchester: "BETTER DAYS AND HAPPY ENDINGS" has been moving it's way up the charts! Melissa has a warm and soulful sound and a variety of tempos on the cuts makes the album enjoyable listening. Our favorites are "Rescue Me," "Sing, Sing, Sing," and "Happy Endings." (Arista)

Kenny Starr: "THE BLIND MAN IN THE BLEACHERS" is a must for all country music lovers! We introduced you to Kenny in the last issue of Tiger Beat so you know how talented he is! His album will keep you listening closely, especially cuts like "Blind Man in the Bleachers," "Tonight I'll Face The Man Who Made It Happen." (MCA)

Junior Walker and the All Stars: "HOT SHOT" is a soulful, swinging album you're really going to like. You probably remember Junior Walker's big hit, "Shotgun" and you can expect more of the same from this LP! Our favorite cuts are "Why Can't We Be Lovers?" and "I'm So Glad." (Motown) ●
