The Bay City Rollers: "DEDICATION." What else is there to say about a Bay City Rollers album except Fantastic! The Rollers have mixed in some oldies and some new songs to create a perfect combination. Eric wrote two songs, there's a song written by Dusty Springfield, "Don't Worry Baby" by the Beach Boys, Eric Carmen's "Let's Pretend," and the Rollers wrote all the other songs!

Starbuck: "MOONLIGHT FEELS RIGHT." Starbuck is a pretty new group but they've come up with a number one song off of this album, "Moonlight Feels Right!" And the rest of the songs have the same potential as their hit! Our favorites were "So the Night Goes," "Lucky Man," and "I Got to Know!"

Rick Springfield: "WAIT FOR NIGHT." This is Rick's first album in quite a while, but it's been a worthwhile wait! In fact, Rick's talent has increased with time! We think you'll really enjoy the album, especially these cuts: "Take A Hand," "Million Dollar Face," "Archangel," and "Old Gangsters Never Die."

Chicago: "CHICAGO X." Gold after gold after gold! That's what Chicago's string of albums have turned to and magic number 10 is a gold, too! Their single off the album, "Another Rainy Day in New York City" shot up the charts and will be followed by others! Chicago really sounds great on "Once or Twice," "If You Leave Me Now," and "Hope For Love." After hearing it, you'll want a copy of this LP!

Marie Osmond: "'A' MY NAME IS ALICE." Beautiful Marie has become such a superstar, and her new single is another item to add to her long list of accomplishments! "'A' My Name is Alice" is a little bit country, and is kind of similar to Olivia Newton-John's style—but Marie makes it completely her own! "Alice" is a story song, but we don't want to tell you about it before you've heard it!
