John Travolta: "WHENEVER I'M AWAY FROM YOU (BABY)." Didn't you just love John's first single "Let Her In"?, and weren't you surprised when you heard it because you didn't know he knew how to sing? Well, all we can say is, if you loved "Let Her In," you'll absolutely flip over this one. It's soft, and very romantically John! (Midland International)

The Jacksons: "THE JACKSONS." This album is definitely their finest yet. It's been critically acclaimed as the Jacksons' best group effort ever, and it won't take you long to realize why, once you've heard it! The single released from it is "Enjoy Yourself," and you sure will once you go out and buy this one! (Motown)

Elton John: "BLUE MOVES." It seemed like Elton took a million years to release another album, but all his fans agree after they hear every one, that it was worth the wait! And so it is with this one! It turned number 4, after just 2 weeks on the charts! "Sorry Seems To Be The Hardest Word" is the single and you'll really be sorry, if you don't run out and grab this! (MCA/Rocket)

Jefferson Starship: "SPITFIRE." The Jefferson Starship have always been a great group, and they really cook on this new release!
